REFERENCE TO THE NON-COVER-AJ3E OF "PEACE MARCH[1]' ORGA WSED BY THE ALL INDIA PEACE AND SOLIDARITY ORGANISATION BS DETHT ON THE 3RD DECEMBER, 1986

MR CHAIRMAN; Now a special mention bv Mr. Gurudas Das Gupta.

SHRT GURUDAS DAS GUPTA West Bengal): Mr. Chairman, Sir, with your kind permission I draw the attention of the the House and the Government and particularly the Minister for Information and Broadcasting to a sim ple fact that yesterday there was a massive peace march in Delhi wherein thousands of people participated and I have with me a bunch of newspapers and national dailies those have published in an exhaustive way the details of peace march. Sir, thousands of people had come from the Punjab itself and participa ted in the demonstration. Slogans were raised against war for peace. Slogans were also raised condemning U. S. —Pakis tan collusion. A demonstration was also held in support of Rajiv-Gorvachev-pact or Delhi Declaration whatever you may call it. Sir, people from Punjab shouted slogans that Punjab does not be long to terrorists. At the same time, slogans were raised "No Hindu Raj, No Khalistan, Yug Yug Jio Hindustan. " This was the nature and character of the demo nstration. It was sponsored by All India Peace and Solidarity Organisation. Fifteen political parties of the country, most of the parties belonging to this side including the Ruling Party have participa ted in the demonstration. Members of this House like Prof. Lakshmanna, Shri Satya Prakash Malaviya, Shri Chitta Basu along with Shri Romesh Bhandari, Inderjit Gup ta and Hari Krishan S'ngh Surjit address ed the rally. The President of World Peace Council, comrade Ramesh Chandra along with the delegation from Soviet Union, Cuba and America were also present Therefore, this march was a march of national importance and significance ia view of the developments in our border, in view of the attempts to destablise our country. Unfortunately, Sir, most un fortunately, I should say, the biggest news media run by the Government of India did not think; t proper or important enough to be covered in the bulletins, neither in the radio nor in Doordarshan. I would like to know. Sir, who runs All India Radio and Doordarshan? I listen ed to the Minister while he was ungrud gingly complimenting his department while answering supp'ementarie$_s$ just few minu tes back. I would like to know who runs this department? Whether the people who are there to look after the affairs are having any softness towards the American policy? I would like to know whether the
